Mind Your Manners!

Nishi is a well-mannered child. Everyone praises her for her polite nature. Here are some golden rules that she follows. You too should learn them and follow them in your daily life.

1. When she meets someone known to her in the morning she greets them with a 'Good Morning'.
2. While leaving her house for school she says 'Bye-bye' to her parents.
3. When someone gives her a gift she says 'Thank You' with a smile.
4. Before an examination she wishes 'Good Luck' to all her friends.
5. Whenever she makes a mistake, she says 'Sorry'.
6. She always talks respectfully to her elders and friends.

Good luck, Rishi.

Bye-bye, Mom!

Thank you!

Sorry

Clever Birbal And The Farmer's Well

16/6/21
STORY
TIME

Once two farmers came to King Akbar's court.

They wanted him to settle a dispute between them.

The first farmer said that he bought a well from the other farmer.

But now he is not allowing him to draw water from it.

King asked the other farmer as to why he was doing this.

He replied. "I have only sold the well, not its water."

"If he wants to use its water then he must pay me for that."

Akbar smiled. He called Birbal to solve the case.

Birbal said to the 2nd farmer, "You have sold your Well."

Now, take your water elsewhere or pay rent to the owner of the well.

Outsmarted by Birbal, the first farmer accepted his mistake.

He was let off by King Akbar after a stern warning.

MORAL: Never cheat others.
