

Class-6th

L-1 The Jackal's Judgement

Word meanings and their use in sentences-

1. Parched- dried with heat

The lack of rain had parched the land.

2. Appeal- request

He appealed people to wear mask.

3. Rumbled- a continuous deep sound

The train rumbles through town twice a day.

4. Callous- cruel and heartless

Man has now become callous.

5. Wantonly- deliberately

They wantonly hit him.

6. Guilt- crime

He couldn't live in guilt.

7. Twigs- a slender woody shoot growing from a branch of a tree

He broke some twigs to cook food.

8. betray- to break , expose

I shouldn't betray my friend's trust.

9. Sustain- to keep

We use nature to sustain our lives.

10. Wisdom- intelligence

His wisdom will take us out from this trap.

Answer the following questions-

1. How could you say that the crocodile had a good time in the large pond?

Ans.The crocodile had a good time in the large pond as the pond was rich in many varieties of fish and he could get a good meal whenever he wanted to.

2. What happened when the rains did not come?

Ans. When the rains did not come , the ground around the crocodile burrow had grown dried and held him tightly .

3. Why did the crocodile call to the man for help?

Ans. The crocodile called to the man to dig him out from the burrow.

4. How did the man help the crocodile?

Ans. The man put the crocodile on his shoulder and walked in the hot sun and finally put it down in the pond. That's how the man helped the crocodile.

5. What did the crocodile do when the man put the crocodile down in the new pond?

Ans. When the man put the crocodile down in the new pond, the crocodile grabbed his leg and told him that he wanted to eat him.

6. Who witnessed the scene between the man and the crocodile?

Ans. The Kumbuck tree, the pond and the peacock witnessed the scene between the man and the crocodile.

7. What was the judgement of the jackal?

Ans. The jackal's judgement was to forgive the man and taught the lesson that he could not not destroy them deliberately and they only wanted respect, care and love.