

Exercise 2

Change the following sentences into Affirmative sentences:

1. She may not help us. She may help us.
2. She could not speak English when she was five. she could speak Eng when she was five.
3. They do not have many pens. They have many pens.
4. They were not here yesterday. They were here yesterday.
5. She is not very brave. She is very brave.
6. I am not hungry. I am hungry.
7. He was not absent yesterday. He was absent yesterday.
8. They did not have a nice time. They have a nice time.
9. I have not done my work. I have done my work.
10. He cannot climb a tree. He can climb a tree.

Exercise 3

Change the following into Negative sentences. Write both the shortened and full forms.

1. His mother can speak English well.
→ His mother can't speak English well.
→ His mother can not speak English well.

2. I am a Greek.

I am not a Greek.

I ain't a Greek.

3. We shall visit her tomorrow.

We shall not visit her tomorrow.

We shan't visit her tomorrow.

4. She could swim well.

She couldn't swim well.

She could not swim well.

5. They did their best.

They didn't do their best.

They did not do their best.

6. They had a big garden.

They didn't have a big garden.

They did not have a big garden.

7. I can give you more work.

I can't give you more work.

I can not give you more work.

8. We should help the poor.

We shouldn't help the poor.

We should not help the poor.

9. That girl has a sweet voice.

The girl doesn't have a sweet voice.

The girl does not have a sweet voice.

10. They have finished their work.

They haven't finished their work.

They have not finished their work.