

1.

Animal Planet

Our planet is full of beautiful animals. These animals carry distinct names, eating habits and exclusive dwelling places which make them very different from each other.

Complete the following statements with the help of the clues given below.

1. The female of a 'swan' is known as Pen.
2. Silk worms feed on the leaves of the plant called mulberry.
3. 'Night hawk' is a name attributed to Nighthawks.
4. Animal which can live without water throughout its life is kangaroo.
5. In Europe, 'Reindeer' is also known as Caribou.
6. The name of the home built by squirrel is known as Drey.
7. Only animal, having true teeth outside its mouth is Sawfish.
8. The animal that stores food in its hump is Camel.
9. The female of an 'deer' is known as Doe.
10. Badger's burrow is also known as Setts.
11. An animal which has flat segments that create noise when vibrated is Rattle snake.
12. A fish which shoots jets of water at the insects to catch them is known as Archer fish.

Fact-File

Scientists in US have discovered that chameleons regularly travel around the world by floating on driftwood logs.

Clue Box

Carbou, Rattle, Doe, Mulberry, Pen, Kangaroo rat, Archer, Camel, Set, Nighthawks, Drey, Sawfish