

Uses of 'Has', 'Have' and 'Had'

11

Look at the pictures and then read the sentences.

1. Sumit has a ball in his hands.

2. Rahul and Ravi have books.

3. I have a pet cat.
4. She has a pet rabbit.
5. Both of us have a pet.

6. He has a small car.
7. She has a big car.
8. Both of them have a car.

Has and have are used:

1. to say what people own or possess.
2. to talk about the things people do.

Have is used with I, you, we and they.

Has is used with he, she, it and any singular noun.

Had is used for the past time with all singular or plural nouns.

A Fill in the blanks with has or have.

1. Sonu has a new cycle.
2. The girls have new school bags.
3. All birds have two wings each.
4. A year has twelve months.

5. You have a good handwriting.
6. This dog has short legs.
7. They have a big house in Delhi.
8. I have a blue shirt.
9. We have a beautiful toy.
10. The old man has a stick in his hand.

B Answer the following questions using has or have.

1. Who has eaten the fruits?
The children have eaten the fruits.

2. Who has a red shirt on?
I have a red shirt on.

3. Who has a long tail?
The mouse has a long tail.

4. Who has an umbrella?
She has an umbrella.

5. Who have not eaten?
The teachers have not eaten.

6. What do they have?
They have balloons.

6 Fill in the blanks using has, had or have.

1. The girl has golden hair.
2. I have an old storybook.
3. Yesterday we had lunch at 1 p.m.
4. She has won the first prize.
5. Seema, Neetu and Rekha have got their gifts.
6. They never have any problems with me.
7. Singapore has the best airport in the world.
8. You had a blue pen yesterday.
9. Rajan has gone to school.
10. We have a big house when we were in Agra.
11. Many people have been to his house.
12. You have a good handwriting.
13. It has four big wheels.
14. I had fever last night.
15. He had finished his homework.