

... saw a little girl. He went to her and asked, "Would you like to be my friend?"

The little girl gave a big smile and said, "Yes, I will be happy to be your friend. I will give you lots and lots of hugs too!"

Spotty became happy. It wagged its tail and went to play with its new friend.

wagged it moved its tail from one side to the other many times

Santhini Govindhan

Comprehension

Who said these lines? Tick (✓) the correct option.

1. "Dear tiger, would you like to be my friend?"

- a. Spotty b. Giraffe c. Monkey

"I can be your friend. But can you climb trees and swing from branches with me?"

- a. Spotty b. Giraffe c. Monkey

"Can you hop like me?"

- a. Spotty b. Kangaroo c. Parrot

"You can't fly. What will you do when I spread my wings and soar into the sky?"

- a. Spotty b. Kangaroo c. Parrot

"Yes, I will be happy to be your friend."

- a. The little girl b. Giraffe c. Monkey

B. Answer the following questions.

1. Who went to a zoo, and why?
2. What did Spotty see when the tiger smiled?
3. What was the monkey doing when Spotty saw him?
4. Why did the giraffe refuse to be Spotty's friend?
5. Who became a friend of Spotty in the end?

C. Write T for true and F for false statements.

1. Spotty went to the forest to find a friend.
2. The monkey became Spotty's friend.
3. The giraffe became Spotty's friend.
4. The little girl agreed to be Spotty's friend.
5. Spotty was not happy to find a true friend.

F
F
F
T
F

Playing with Words

D. Read these words aloud.

ie	lie	tie	pie	die	vie
ou	loud	cloud	found	sound	round
ow	crow	flow	slow	grow	blow

E. A crow lives in a tree and a mouse lives in a hole. Now write the homes of these animals.

1. A dog lives in a kennel.
2. A horse lives in a stable.
3. A cow lives in a shed.
4. A bird lives in a nest.
5. A hen lives in a coop.

stable

nest

kennel

coop

